

College

Name

Grade

Problems
To Think About

Mental Geometry

A circle and two squares, one inscribed and the other circumscribed. Determine the ratio between the perimeters of the squares.

A circle and two triangles, one inscribed and the other circumscribed. Determine the ratio between the perimeters of the triangles.

$\triangle ABC$ scalene with $\angle C = 36^\circ$.
The trisectors of the other two angles intersect at D and E .
 $\angle AEB = ?$

Determine the perimeter of the shaded triangle.